This residue and phytotoxicity trial was initiated and reported on in 1979 in the Walnut Research Abstracts.

Results of this trial were used by the Dow Chemical Company in their request to EPA for an Experimental Label, which was granted in December 1980.

Plans are currently being made for an expanded 10-acre trial in a commercial orchard to verify efficacy and to measure economic results.